Malaysia Aims to Surpass Pre-Covid Tourist Arrivals in 2024

马来西亚预计在2024年超越疫情前游客人数

Positively equipped with better flight connectivity, revenge travel in the post-pandemic era, and increasing numbers of potential visitors from prominent countries like China and India, Malaysia is well on its way to top the pre-pandemic level of 26.1 million seen in 2019. This is according to a statement made by the Deputy Director General (Promotion) of Tourism Malaysia – Datuk Musa Yusof.

“More eco-friendly infrastructure and sustainable options are also increasingly sought after among tourists, which are more often than not, business travellers seeking leisure time, and recently after the pandemic, digital nomads who can ‘work from anywhere,’” he said. “We will head towards the third phase of our strategic plan: Strengthen & Boost, which will also be the year where we gear up for the upcoming Visit Malaysia Year 2026, a benchmark that is hoped to bring us even further than our pre-pandemic success,” he added.

根据马来西亚旅游局副总干事（推广）拿督穆萨尤索夫的一份声明，凭借更好的航班连接、疫情后的“复仇式旅行”以及来自中国和印度等主要国家的游客人数渐入佳境，马来西亚有望超越2019年的疫情前的2610万入境游客到访人数，再创高峰。

拿督穆萨表示：“更环保的旅游基础设施和可持续旅游选择显然越来越受游客们的欢迎，而这些游客往往是寻求休闲时间的商务旅行者，尤其是疫情之后仍然可以远距办公的数字游民。”他补充说：“我们将朝着我们战略计划的第三阶段迈进：强化与提升，这也将是我们为即将到来的2026年马来西亚旅游年做好准备的一年，我们希望在那一年能够超越我们疫情前的成功。”
